

ANTI NARCOTICS FORCE ACADEMY ISLAMABAD - PAKISTAN

VISION

Act as centre of excellence at national and regional level in the fields of counter narcotics training, research and analysis

ABOUT ANFA

ANFA is the only institution in Pakistan offering training courses on narcotics law enforcement. It was established in 1983 as Anti Narcotics Law Enforcement School (ANLES) and later renamed as Anti Narcotics Force Academy (ANFA) in 2005.

In May 2011, it shifted from modest rented building to a purpose built campus in Islamabad. It is designed to cater for the training needs of ANF and other LEAs in the sphere of counter narcotics. It offers variety of courses to promote awareness regarding drug abuse and investigate narcotics related crimes. It provides training not only to the officials of ANF but also to the other LEAs dealing with counter narcotics tasks. ANFA also runs training collaboration programmes with international partners such as UNODC and DEA (USA) etc.

MISSION
